Women's Organizations

The monthly meeting of the El Paso Humane society was held Monday night in the office of the Humane society, in the Caples building. The president, Dr. T. A. Bray, presided. Lamar Thomas, the humane officer, reported 45 cases of cruelty and abuse of animals investigated, and two horses with broken legs, and two burros with broken legs, and two burros with broken legs, were put out of their misery. Two dogs and one cat were killed. The routine business of the organization was transacted. The meeting was well attended Mrs. W. A. White, Mrs. J. E. Ryan and Mrs. B. M. G. Williams were appointed a press committee.

About 40 Camp Fire girls gathered at the Y. W. C. A. down-town rooms Monday afternoon for the monthly story hour. Mrs. J. W. Tappan told them the story of the heroism of Grace Darling, the English girl, who saved the sailors from drowning. Preceding the story hour, a few games were played, under the leadership of Miss Dorothem Harl, one of the Camp Fire guardians. At the close of the afternoon, "America" was sung by the girls, with Miss Deila Kiefer playing the plane accompaniment.

The meeting of the Rescue Home association, held Monday afternoon in the city council chamber of the CMy hall was very well attended. The president, Mrs. T. A. Pitt, presided. S. E. Patton, the architect of the home, talked about the location of the building, and it was decided to follow his suggestion and have the home built on the corner, leaving space on the six lots in the possession of the association for additional buildings, should they be needed. The lots are located on McKinitey and Piedras streets. The building will represent about $6500 value. Through the kindness and interest of the various labor unions of the city the actual cost of construction will be greatly reduced, as the bricklayers, carpenters, plumbers, painters and sheet metal workers' unions have volunteered to contribute either one day's labor per member, or its equivalent in money. Work upon the building will begin Wednesday. Mrs. Pitt reported the case of a girl who was sent to the Salvation army rescue home in Los Angeles, at the expense of the Rescue Home association. Mrs. Russell Rokahr reported that the City Baseball league had offered to play a baseball game for the beneft of the rescue home. This offer was accepted by the association and arrangements will be made soon for the game.

has donated the profits of its advertising for one day to the fund and the Times has made a similar donation for the day following. These dates will be June 6th and 7th and the two teams fo solicit advertising for the two special publications are now being organized. W. M. Laughlin, advertising manager of The Herald, will be captain of one team, while E. C. Davis, of the Times, is to captain of neither team. The captain of neither team will receive free transportation to Toronto, as their work will be to direct the special committee in getting advertising for the special issues. The free trip will go to the man who gets the largest amount of advertising in the campaign. The regular advertising men and solicitors for the two papers will have no part in the campaign, but it will be done by the members of the Ad club. All of the contestants who compose the teams will share equally in the profits from the advertising campaign to assist in paying their expenses to Toronto. Business firms, factories and the chamber of commerce will be asked to take page layouts in these two special editions of the local papers and a large amount of special advertising is expected to be obtained by the amateur solicitors.

It contains many suggestions that are of interest to all women. What can you do? You can thank a Merciful Providence that you found out the girl you love is a dismal raven before you married her, and had to hear her croak, croak croak all your life. Evidently she has no troubles now beyond the imaginary ones that come to pessimistic youth. With marriage and years thore will come troubles that are real.
